

Hello, YSN Membership,

We'd like to introduce the 2019 YSN officers! Thank you everyone who voted. We appreciate the support!

NSPS YSN President

David Anderson, RLS, PLS, PSM

David is a Senior Project Surveyor with Atwell's field services department and oversees all aspects of the firm's Buford, Georgia office. He has 13 years of professional surveying experience inclusive of 4 years as an intern while pursuing his Bachelor of Science in Geomatics and Land Surveying Sciences with a minor in Business Administration from Troy University. In addition to his BS, David has a Masters of Divinity in Biblical Studies and is currently working on a Master of Business Administration in Project Management through Mississippi State University. David is a licensed surveyor in 15 states spanning the southeastern US.

David and his wife Elizabeth Anderson reside in Buford, Georgia with their two children.

NSPS YSN Vice President
Denver Winchester, PLS, CFM

Denver has been in or around surveying his entire life. His mom is a survey drafter; he spent many of his formative years in a survey office after school. Denver went to the University of Oklahoma for Civil Engineering only to discover it was not for him. After noticing a job posting for a rodman in 2009, he decided to give it a shot. It was a match made in heaven. He works for a large regional firm and where he experiences a wide breadth of the surveying business. He received an Associates in Survey Technology in May of 2016. Denver is currently licensed in four Southern Plains states. He is very passionate about surveying, and he can't imagine doing anything else with his life. Denver's goal is to become someone who positively shapes the future of the surveying profession that he has come to love.

Denver resides in Oklahoma City, OK with his daughter.

NSPS YSN Secretary
James Combs, PLS

James Combs graduated from Murray State University in 2011 with a degree in Civil Engineering Technology. James is licensed as a surveyor in Kentucky, Wyoming and New Mexico. James works at a regional surveying and engineering company called Souder Miller and Associates in Albuquerque, New Mexico. James is also the President of the Middle Rio Grande Chapter of the New Mexico Professional Surveyors. James started developing the New Mexico Young Surveyors in 2018 and so far, has regular meetings the second Wednesday of each month, has organized labs with local charter schools, events on National Surveyors' week, a meeting at the NMPS conference and fieldwork for the NGS GPS on Benchmarks campaign. James is also a family man with a wife and two boys and enjoys riding his mountain bike whenever he gets a chance.

NSPS YSN Delegate
Christopher Glantz, PLS

Christopher currently works as the Lead Remote Sensing Surveyor in Geometronics Unit of the Oregon Department of Transportation. He attended California State University, Fresno, where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Geomatics Engineering. Christopher is licensed in six western states and is very active in the National Society of Professional Surveyors and the Professional Land Surveyors of Oregon.

Christopher and his wife Olivia reside in Salem, Oregon with their two dogs, Ella and Molly.
